

I oppose this proposal and any further deregulation of net neutrality. An open internet is critical for a democratic society.